

REGULATIONS OF
UNIVERSITY OF FLORIDA

6C1-4.013 Selection of Remedies in Student Discipline.

(1) Students charged with violations of either the Student Honor Code or the Student Conduct Code shall have their cases heard by the appropriate person or body designated below:

(a) The Student Conduct Committee, the Committee's Chairperson or his or her designee, the Assistant Director for Student Judicial Affairs, or the Director of Student Judicial Affairs, in accordance with University rules, for alleged violation of the Student Conduct Code, 6C1-4.016, F.A.C.

(b) The Student Honor Court, for alleged violations of the Student Honor Code, 6C1-4.017, F.A.C., except as provided in paragraphs (d) and (e) below or unless the matter is otherwise resolved in accordance with University rules.

(c) The Coordinator for Residential Judicial Programs, Residence Directors, Residence Life Coordinators, Coordinator for Village Community Services, and the Assistant Director for Village Communities, pursuant to 6C1-4.021, F.A.C., for alleged offenses of University rules relating to conduct in University housing unless the matter is otherwise resolved in accordance with University rules.

(d) The Health Center Student Conduct Standards Committee for alleged violations of the Student Honor Code, 6C1-4.017, F.A.C., by students in the College of Dentistry, Health Related Profession, Medicine, Nursing, Pharmacy, and Veterinary Medicine.

(e) The College of Law Honor Committee or the Student Honor Court for alleged violations of the Student Honor Code, 6C1-4.017, F.A.C., by students in the College of Law.

(2) Organizations subject to disciplinary actions shall have their cases heard by the appropriate person or body designated below:

(a) The Greek Judicial Board, which represents the Interfraternity Council, the Panhellenic Council, the National Panhellenic Council, and the Multicultural Greek Council. The Greek Judicial Board shall hear the case and submit a written report to the Dean of Students containing findings of facts and recommended sanctions, if any. If the fraternity or sorority is adjudicated responsible for the violation, the hearing body shall recommend one or more sanctions as provided in 6C1-4.016, F.A.C. The Dean may adopt, reject or modify the Board's findings and recommendations.

(b) The Student Conduct Committee or its designees, for all other organizations.

(3) Disciplinary adjudications under (1) and (2) above shall be subject to review and/or appeal in accordance with 6C1-4.016(5)(g) and (6), F.A.C. Disciplinary adjudications under (2) above shall be subject to review and/or appeal in accordance with 6C1-4.016(5)(g) and (6), F.A.C.

(4) The guidelines for hearing student judicial cases is sixty (60) calendar days from the date the case is referred to the hearing body or person. If the sixty (60) days has not expired at the conclusion of the fall or spring semester, and the primary individuals in the case are unavailable for a student judicial hearing or other proceeding, the running of the sixty (60) day period can be tolled until the first day of class for the following fall or spring semester. In the event the hearing body or person is unable to conduct the hearing within this time frame, the Director of Student Judicial Affairs, after consulting with the hearing body or person, may reassign the case to a different hearing body to insure that the case is resolved in a timely manner. The accused student or the original hearing body or person may appeal this reassignment, in writing, to the Dean of Students within five (5) business days after being notified of the decision. The decision of the Dean of Students shall be final.
